Inspired, Engaged and Rewarded Employees

DECEMBER 2021 – SOUTH AFRICA COVID ACT NOTICE

It is important that employers note the following:

Notice issued by the Compensation Commissioner

The Compensation Commissioner wishes to communicate the following:

- All employers are reminded to submit all the outstanding Return of Earnings (ROE).
- Returns must be submitted through the Department of Employment and Labour's ROE online system (cfonline.labour.gov.za) or by completing the CF-2A form (WAs8 form for ROE up to 2018) for submission via email to cfcallcentre@labour.gov.za.
- Should employers fail to submit their ROEs, the compensation fund (CF) will perform an estimation for all outstanding ROEs before 31 January 2022 and a notice of assessment will be issued to the employer with a legal obligation to make payment.
- The CF will impose a 10% penalty on the final assessment for those employers who fail to submit the ROEs by the due date.
- Failure to make payment will result in interest being charged on overdue accounts.
